

New Member and Congregation Covenant

(New members read the bold text in unison. The congregation remains seated and reads the italicized text in unison.)

I commit myself wholeheartedly to membership in Wildflower Church. I promise to help carry out its missions with my time, my talents, and my financial support, in recognition of both the privileges and responsibilities of membership.

We welcome you to membership in this religious community of Wildflower Church. We join our time, talents, and financial resources with yours to serve this church and the larger community.

I will be intentional in seeking my spiritual path and sharing our Unitarian Universalists traditions.

We welcome your participation in our search for truth and meaning and our joy in being together.

I will strive to be a model for our children, a mentor for our youth, and a friend to all.

We join together to forge and strengthen our bonds, living our shared Unitarian Universalist values. Now, you are a part of us and we are a part of you.
